

Archaeology

For Work Related Learning Year 6 have been exploring what it means to be an archaeologist.

Archaeology is the study of human history and prehistory through excavation and the analysis of artefacts and other physical remains. We created an archaeological dig and recorded the artefacts we discovered.

